9.10.2001 ;

Shri Sunil Sinha for the petitioner.

Shri Deep Kesharwani learned counsel for the State.

Mr.Kesharwani states thatthis matter should be examied by the State Administrative Tribunal. Shri Sinha states that when the petition was submitted before this Court,the Tribunal was not functioning. Now it is functioning. The order impugned was issued on 5.7.2001. It is anorder of transfer. The petitioner took leave and he has not joined the new place of posting. The parents of the writ petitioner are old and both are having sicknesses. Further two children of the writ petitioner are studying at the local schools. If the petitioner is to join at the new place of posting in terms of the order of transfer great hardship will be caused to the family. Therefore, it is submitted that on humanitarion ground,the petitioner may be allowed to stay till the end of academic session which will be about the end of June,2002. It is further stated that the petitioner has made representation before the competent authority regarding difficult circumstances faced by the writ petitioner.

After giving a careful thought to the submissions

	I am of the view that the competent authority should examine the w:representation of the writ petitioner sympathetically ,taking into consideration various circumstances that the writ petitioner has highlighted in the representation. Annexure P-7 is the forwarding letter of the local authority. The said representation is pending before the Additional Director,Technical Education (respondent no.2). Let the writ petitioner ~~should~~ submit ~~the~~ a fresh copy of the said representation together with the copy of this order before the said authority within 10 days from today. The Additional Director, Technical education shall thereafter proceed to examine the representation on merit and pass necessary final orders. Until representation is finally disposed of the writ petitioner shall be allowed to continue to stay where she is now. C.C.
